STRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 20 .- Dartmouth

field heavy with mud this afternoon.

Syracuse held the advantage throughout until the final two minutes of play, when

Holbrook, a Dartmouth substitute quaryard mark. An opportune penalty for olding and the fierce resistance of the Orange eleven made Dartmouth relinquish possession of the ball and the crisis

the ball in Dartmouth territory con-tinually, and in the second quarter Brown, a Syracuse substitute fullback, recovered a fumbled punt and carried the ball to the Dartmouth 1 yard line.

The Second Quarter,

With the shift of goals, Yale gained the advantage of the strong wind, and the Blue legions were hoping for a chance for the team to make the best of it. Mahan wormed his way through the right side of the line for three yards on the first play, and on the next made first down through the left on a fake kick

King was downed by C. Sheldon after a gain of three yards, and on another fake kick play King punctured the Yale line for six yards. In making this gain king did the prettiest piece of dodging in the game. Way had guessed what was coming and broke through, but it availed him naught, for King slipped right under Way and kept going until Wilson nailed him.

Mison nailed him.

Mahan made another first down.
Soucy, on an end play, made five yards before C. Sheldon stopped him on Yale's 15 yard line. King came within a few inches of making first down on the next play, and after Gates replaced C. Sheldon at left tackle for Yale, Mahan finished the job. Mahan made four yards more around Yale's left end. Horween took Boles's place at left half for Harvard after this play. Mahan took the ball on a delayed pass and went through the right side of Yale's line for the third touchdown of the game and easily kicked chdown of the game and easily kicked the goal. Score—Harvard, 20; Yale, 0.

The game by this time had taken on the nature of a walkover for the Harvard team and the Yale rooters were beginning to lose what little courage was left after the first two touchdowns. The Blue pennants of the Yale well wishers were seen here and there throughout the crowd drooping in sympathy with the Bingham, Hurt, Is Taken Out. Mahan kicked off to Bingham on the latter's 3 yard line and Bingham was downed after travelling upfield for twenty-one yards. Three of the Harvard men finally tackled Bingham and he was hurt badly enough to be taken out of the game. Scovil replaced him and signalized his entry into the game by tearing through Harvard's right for three yards. through Harvard's right for three yards Wilson made two more the same way and Taylor punted. The play was off, however, and Harvard was penalized fifteen yards for roughing the kicker. Wilson failed to gain through centre. but on the next play Scovil made four yards through left tackle, being downed by Moseley Taylor. Wilson tried his foot at punting on a play after Church had taken Higginbotham's place, the effort being rather puny and Watson catching the ball on his own 37 yard line. Watson ran it back five yards and was tackled by Van Nostrand. The latter was hurt on the play and his latter was hurt on the play and his team was penalized two yards for ex-ceeding the time limit for rest.

The delayed pass, which had been working so much havoc for the Blue, was called into play again on the next incup. This time it was King who cook it, and he ran fifty-six yards, the congest run of the game, for Harvard's fourth touchdown. The one bad fea-ture about King's run was that when he got across the line he made no for Bingham. Gates punted to Har-vard's 30 yard line after Scovil had failed to gain through centre. Mahan caught the punt and made slight progress Yale goalward. Mahan went two yards more through right tackle. Boles gained two more and Mahan punted forty-five yards against the wind. The ball dropped to the ground and Boles touched it.

Scovil made four yards through Gil-man before the latter downed him, with the ball on Yale's 34 yard line. Sayage went four yards through centre. He then lost a yard on a fake kick and on the very next play got back for a lick and fumbled. He recovered the ball, but 't went to Harvard on downs n Yale's 22 yard line. Mahan gained five yards around ight end, this being offset by a penalty of five yards against the Crimson for side play. A lateral pass, King to shan, gained three yards for the Crim-

Once in striking distance of Yale's goal Harvard worked with more snap, as on the five other times that she scored, and began a march to a touchdown. A delayed pass, Robinson to Mc-kinlock, gained six yards. McKinlock made first down through centre on Yale's own 40 yard line. Waite was thrown 6 yard line. ## BRICKLEY BIG FACTOR Clinton R. Black, Jr. ARMY ROUTS TEAM IN TRINITY VICTORY Catches Punt and Runs Through Wesleyan for Only Touchdown of Game.

FINAL SCORE IS 9 TO 0

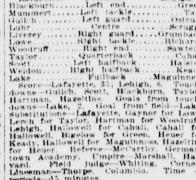

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 20,-Trinity triumphed, 9 to 0, over her ancient foe. Wesleyan, before an immense crowd on Trinity Field this afternoon. In the first period Wesleyan was forced to make a safety to prevent a touchdown and in the final period Brickley caught a punt and swept across the field for a fifty yard run for the only touchdown of the game. The sweetest victory of years is being celebrated noisily here to-Wesleyan had her chance in the third period but couldn't make good. Getting the ball on a fumble on Trinity's 25 yard line, Harmon skirted right end and was thrown out of bounds on Trinity's I foot line. Deetjen was thrown for a loss of six yards, but Trinity was penalloss of six yards, but Trinity was penal-ized for the third time and the ball went to the 2 yard line, where it was lost on downs. Brickley made a poor punt, and Wesleyan, with two points against her, again got the ball on Trin-ity's 12 yard line and squarely in front of the goal posts. First down was made within six inches of the goal line, but here again Trinity held des-perately and after being in a precarious position three times in five minutes was evidenced in every mancruve The Dartmouth line was no match for the Syracuse forwards, but the Green backfield appeared slightly faster. Puts Up Good Game in 17 to 7 Victory Except in Aerial Plays.

FIELD GOAL FOR OLIPHANT

WEST POINT, Nov. 20 .- The curtain was rung down on the Army's football season to-day so far as home games are concerned and the cadets wound un their schedule with a victory over the Springfield Y. M. C. A. College team, 17 to 7. Followers of the soldier elever could find plenty of comfort in the game's result, but there were spots is the Army's play that were not high

At forward passing the visitors were head and shoulders above the Army lads. They were going fast with their overhead game when the whistle haited the contest and they had the ball on the cadets' 25 yard mark after three successful forward pass plays which were started at their own 35 yard line. A pretty pag. Sermon to Miller, at page. A pretty par s, Sermon to Miller, at mid-field during the third period gave Spring-field its touchdown. Miller ran forty yards for the score.

In the last quarter Goodman, who played well at centre, fell on a fumbled ball on Springfield's 40 yard line. From there on the Army showed at its best, Berry being flung through for the touchdown on a plunge at centre. Coffin kicked the goal. Place's playing behind the Army line was not up to his standard.
